Abstract Submission Procedures

Authors are required to complete the registration process via the conference registration system by providing all required information, uploading the abstract in PDF format, and completing the payment process.

This conference adopts a double-blind peer review. Authors are required to upload two files of the abstract manuscript in PDF format:

1. Original File: This file should include all author information, such as name(s), affiliation(s), and title(s). Please name the file using the format: "[Corresponding Author's Name] – [Paper Title]".

2. Anonymous File: Ensure that this file contains no author names or any information that could reveal the authors' identities. Please name the file using the format: "[Paper Title]".

Please refer to the Submission Guidelines and Submission Format Templates provided by the conference. The conference staff will initially review all submissions to ensure the format follows the Guidelines. Submissions that fail to meet the requirements will be returned to the authors for necessary revisions and resubmission.

Certificate of Attendance

Participants who attend the two-day conference will receive the certificate of participation as a PDF within 30 days after the conference.

Certificate of Presentation

Oral/Poster presenters will be issued a certificate of presentation after the session.
